

In this session we will explore the use of complementary colours and the importance of mixing paint correctly in watercolour. Understanding how colours interact can help create harmony, contrast, and vibrancy within a painting. We will also look at the importance of paint consistency and learning how much water to add to achieve different effects. A simple demonstration will show how complementary colours can be mixed and balanced, helping you gain more confidence and control with colour mixing.