

---

This class looks at simple and effective ways to paint foliage in watercolour, including trees, shrubs, and grasses. We will explore how different brushstrokes, colours, and techniques can be used to suggest texture and movement in natural landscapes. A short demonstration will introduce a variety of approaches to painting foliage, giving you the chance to try different methods and discover what works best for you. The aim is to simplify the subject and enjoy the freedom and spontaneity that watercolour can offer.