

---

In this session we will paint a beautiful arrangement of hydrangea flowers in a glass vase. As well as focusing on the flowers themselves, we will look at reflections in the glass and the appearance of water within the vase, creating a simple but elegant tabletop composition. Following a short demonstration, you will explore colour mixing and watercolour techniques to capture the softness and delicacy of the flowers. This class is a lovely opportunity to practise observation and develop confidence in painting floral subjects.